May 13th 1916

Sir,

It is reported that a new pro-rebel newspaper will appear in Shanghai soon. The journal will be called the Ghoong Wo Sing Pao 共和新報 and it will be published at No.14 Rue du Consulat.

Seven hundred recruits arrived in Shanghai yesterday by the cruiser "Yong Fong" and went into billets at Doo Sz Khoong Su 圖書公司.

It is reported that Sun Yat Sen will soon go to Canton in response to an invitation from the rebel military Government there.

It is reported that considerable difference of opinion exists among the rebel leaders of Chekiang, and that it is probable that they will fight among themselves.

On 11th inst General Yang received a telegram from Chiangchun Feng requesting that he or Deputy Military Governor Lu proceed to Nanking to discuss some important affairs. After a consultation the generals came to the conclusion that it would not be wise for either of them to leave Shanghai and they decided to send a staff officer named Zau Li Wong 趙麗璜 in their place. The latter left for Nanking yesterday.

X Chen Chi Mei 陳其美 is again reported to be in the French Concession. It appears that he sent a representative to Shantung who assumed his name but he did not go himself.

X

Your Obedient Servant,

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
